Here, you can have a panoramic view of the canyon and also the Bridal Veil Falls in the sea of red maple. With full loads of “reds” in our vision and in our memory, the train will lead us through the tranquil villages that are concealed in different shades of maple and then we will be back in Sudbury.

Day 4: Sudbury - Algonquin Tower - Toronto FREE BREAKFAST PER PERSON

After breakfast, we will head to the Algonquin tourist area to experience the picturesque Algonquin Dorest Tower. Every fall, a large number of nature lovers visit this most famous sacred place in Ontario, and autumn is the best time to visit here. That colorful foliage gives a new look to the towering trees on the 7,725-square-kilometer (3,000-square-mile), which is awe-inspiring. The last week of September to the beginning of October is the best time to view the fall color. The autumn leaves of larch and red oak also reach their peak, blooming their own enchanting beauty. Dorset Lookout Tower is an important stop for the lake and bay scenery. The observation deck was built in 1922 and is 142 meters high (about 5 stories high). Autumn is the peak season for maple viewing, especially on weekends, there is an endless stream of tourists visiting the tower. We will get back to Toronto in the evening.
